

Australasian Faculty of
Occupational and Environmental Medicine

Signatory Steering Group Good Work Forum

This industry forum is convened by the Health Benefits of Good Work (HBGW) Signatory Steering Group (SSG) and supported by the Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine (AFOEM) of The Royal Australasian College of Physicians (RACP).

Thursday, 8 November 2018

12.30pm registration for 1pm opening | 5pm closing followed by networking.
School of Medicine & Health Sciences, University of Otago, Mein Street, Newtown,
Wellington

Keynote Speaker: Professor Anne Harriss

A Professor of Occupational Health at London South Bank University, Anne has been awarded a Fellowship of the Royal College of Nursing, the highest award the Royal College of Nursing can bestow. She was also named the first Occupational Health Nurse of the Year in 2011 and received Innovations in Occupational Health Awards.

Professor Harriss will present on the underlying concepts, evidence for and practical application of the Health Benefits of Good Work

The program also features local speakers and industry leaders showcasing the benefits of Good Work

The program is subject to change based on speaker availability

To Register for this event Please RSVP to:

Peterdewar@outlook.com.au

WELLINGTON

Forum Program

Session	Speaker	Details
1pm Welcome to the Forum by the Convenor	Denise Cosgrove Convenor	With a leadership career spanning more than 25 years in roles as a CEO, head of significant operational businesses in large social services organisations, and as an expert advisor, Denise has always been focused on challenging the status quo. On top of this, her governance experience includes a range of statutory boards and not-for-profit organisations, and she is often sought as a mentor and advisor to CEO's.
1.10pm Health Benefits of Good Work and Make it the Norm	David Beaumont FAFOEM FRACP Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine	Dr David Beaumont is an Occupational Medicine Specialist with experience in a wide variety of occupational settings, from heavy industry to public sector organisations in both the United Kingdom and New Zealand. David will present an overview of the Health Benefits of Good Work initiative and outline the links to the recent RACP Make it the Norm initiative.
1:30pm Health Benefits of Good Work	Professor Anne Harriss Professor Emeritus of Occupational Health London South Bank University	A Professor of Occupational Health at London South Bank University, Anne has been awarded a Fellowship of the Royal College of Nursing (FCRN), the highest award the Royal College of Nursing can bestow, named the first Occupational Health Nurse of the Year in 2011, and also received Innovations in Occupational Health Awards (2011 and 2013). Anne has also been made an Honorary Fellow of the Faculty of Occupational Medicine, and was a finalist in the Nursing Times Nurse of the Year in 2016 Professor Harriss has published and presented extensively in Occupational Health, with her work and research supporting the development of the New Zealand Occupational Health Nurses Competency Framework (2016). Professor Harriss will present on the underlying concepts, evidence for and practical application of the Health Benefits of Good Work
2:10pm Good Work Tool: Practical Application	Noni Byron Workplace Engagement Committee Chair HBGW SSG	“Good Work” Tool: Workshop Noni Byron is the Managing Director / Founder and Owner of Prestige Health Services Australia and Chair of the Workplace Engagement and Advocacy Committee for the Health Benefits of Good Work

Session	Speaker	Details
		SSG Steering Committee Noni's will demonstrate a 'Good Work' audit tool under development by the SSG The Health Benefits of Good Work Tool is a matrix designed to assess the degree to which elements of 'good work' exist within an organisation. It can use used to assess an individual, team and organizational views.. Results can assist in identifying areas of success and areas for review, to promote 'good work' and the resultant health benefits.
2:30pm	Afternoon Tea Break	Networking over a coffee
3pm	Richard Brown AIA	Richard Brown, Head of Claims and Rehabilitation will present case Studies related to the benefits of Good Work
3:20pm	Kiwi Rail & RMTU	Wayne Butson (Rail and Maritime Transport Union (RMTU) Secretary and Maryan Street, HR anager at Kiwi Rail, will present on a joint project by the employer and union to design and implement a High Performance High Engagement (HPHE) model.
3:40pm Q&A with industry leaders	Various	Industry leaders from various sectors join our speakers to answer burning questions about fostering more good work in your work space.
4:45pm Closing remarks	Denise Cosgrove	We'll highlight areas of consensus and potential next steps, including how to make use of being a Signatory to the Consensus Statement.
5:pm Forum Close		Please join us for Networking opportunities.

This program is made possible through the generosity of our sponsors.

WELLINGTON

Australasian Faculty of
Occupational and Environmental Medicine